International golf winners with a distinct British flavour in Cyprus Seniors Amateur Opens for Men and Ladies at Minthis Golf Course.

The 14th edition of the Cyprus Senior Amateur Men's and Cyprus Amateur Ladies Opens, played over two days. This event is organised by Cyprus Golf Federation (CGF), and was hosted this year by Minthis golf course, Tsada, Paphos.

In the Men's event, some exciting Day 1 golf saw ex-champion Rachid Akl (Lebanon) share the lead with Andrew Wright (England) both on 77, with Myles Clapperton (England) a shot behind on a 78. Andrew Wright's final day 80 was enough to give him the Championship with a total of 157, with Myles Clapperton's 80 and a total of 159, improving on his 2019 third placing to claim the runner-up spot this year. Rachid Akl's 85 on Day 2 and total of 162 was enough to secure the third place.

Just like the Men's event, the Ladies had a very closely fought Day 1 with Christine Huebner's (Germany) score of 91 leading ex-champion Carol Powell (England) by a single shot, with Gillian Crossley (UK) and Limor Sidi (Israel) sharing third place both on 94. On Day 2 Carol Powell's excellent 86 – best ladies score of the 2021 Open – and a total of 178 gave her the Championship once again after her successes in 2017 and 2018. Christine Huebner's Day 2 score of 91 was enough to secure the runner-up spot with a total of 182, with Gillian Crossley scoring a 92 on final day and a total of 186 in third place.
