A SECOND WIN FOR CYPRUS AT THE CYPRUS AMATEUR MENS' OPEN 2021

Tuesday, 21 September 2021 at 0830 saw a small but quality international field tee off to compete in the Cyprus Amateur Men's Open 2021. The World Amateur Golf Ranking event was hosted this year by the revamped Minthis golf course, Tsada, Paphos. Participants came from Lebanon, Austria, Switzerland, United Kingdom, Hungary and Cyprus.

Day 1, which was played in perfect golfing conditions, saw UK's Joseph Beasant share the lead with Cyprus' Achilleas Lazaridis, both on 1-over-par 72, with Cyprus' Theodoros Michael in third place with 84 after a disastrous 13 at the 11th.

On Day 2, with a brisk breeze in the later stages, saw Joseph Beasant shoot another 1-over-par 72, to take a single stroke lead from Achilleas Lazarides who scored a 2-over-par 73. Theodoros Michael, with a marvellous 2-under par 69 kept himself in the mix and in 3rd place.

The third and final day, started off with the previous day's brisk breeze gradually increasing by the final stages of the championship and played a role in all competitors' scores. After a nail-biting finish Achilleas Lazaridis' 6-over-par 77 was enough to give him the championship over Joseph Beasant who shot a 9-over-par 80 on the day. Theodoros' 84 for the final day kept him in third place. Achilleas becomes the second Cypriot to win the premier golf event of Cyprus, following in the steps of George Kalpakas, who won in 2018

In his winner's speech, Achilleas thanked the host course, the Cyprus Golf Federation and the numerous volunteer helpers who helped throughout the 3 days.

The 2022 Cyprus Amateur Men's Open is scheduled for 19-22 May 2022 and is to be hosted by Eléa Estate golf course.
